Application for residence permit for a family member of a foreign national who is to work or study in Denmark

1. Information about fees

In order for your application to be processed, you must pay a case processing fee. The fee will cover the processing of your case and will not be refunded if your application is turned down, or if you withdraw your application. The fee must be paid by the time we receive your application.

The fee is regulated annually on 1 January. Please make sure to create your Case Order ID and pay the fee in the same calendar year that you submit your application. If you pay the fee one calendar year (before 1 January), but submit your application the following calendar year (after 1 January), you will have paid too little.

You can find further information about current fees, how to create a Case Order ID and how to pay the fee at newtodenmark.dk/fee.

To pay the fee you must:

1. Create a Case Order ID.
2. Pay the fee.

Please enter the Case Order ID in this form, and remember to attach documentation that the fee has been paid.

How do I pay the fee?

You can pay the fee in several ways, for example, using a Danish debit card (Dankort), credit card, a Danish internet bank or a foreign bank. You can choose how you wish to pay, and see which information is required when paying the fee at newtodenmark.dk/fee.

Please note: If you pay the fee using a Danish internet bank or foreign bank, make sure to submit the Case Order ID together with the payment. You cannot pay the fee in connection with submitting your application in person. However, at certain embassies this is possible. Find more information at nyidanmark.dk/en-us/coming_to_dk/fee/about_fees/list_of_places.htm.

Who is exempt from paying the fee?

Certain case categories are exempt from paying the fee. There may also be specific instances where an application can be submitted without paying the fee even though a fee is normally required. You can read more about who is exempt from paying the fee www.nyidanmark.dk/en-us/coming_to_dk/fee/about_fees/about_fees.htm. If you believe that you (the applicant) are exempt from paying the fee, please tick the box 'Applicant is exempt from paying the fee' in the field above. If you do this, you do not need to fill in the information required for refunding the fee. When you create a case order ID, please state that you are exempt from paying the fee.

Please note: If we decide that you are in fact not exempt from paying the fee, your application will be rejected, which means that it will not be processed. However, if you have paid the fee and we decide that you are in fact exempt from paying the fee, the fee will be refunded to you.

1.1 Case order ID

Please state your case order ID. The case order ID you state below must be identical to the case order ID stated when paying the fee. Please include documentation that you have paid the fee. Please state the name of the person to whom the refund should be paid (account holder/recipient), how you wish to receive the money, and any required information.

If the refund is to be paid to a foreign bank account, we recommend that you speak with your bank first to obtain the information necessary in order to receive a transfer from Denmark. In addition to the account information, you may also need to provide the bank's address.

Please note that for a period of 180 days, your fee cannot be returned to a bank account, if you originally paid the fee with Dankort or credit card.
