

Application form

SG3_en_220224

Application for Danish residence permit based on previous Danish citizenship, Danish heritage or Danish minority in South Schleswig or Argentina

Uses

Use this form when applying for a Danish residence permit based on

- previous Danish citizenship,
- Danish heritage,
- if you belong to the Danish minority in South Schleswig, or
- affiliation with the Danish minority in Argentina.

More about the rules covering residence permits granted based on the above-mentioned criteria can be found on page 2 of this form, where you will also find examples of approved documentation.

Instructions

To apply for a Danish residence permit:

1. Fill out and sign this form (following the instructions given).
2. Include the required documents (See below).
3. Submit the application to a Danish diplomatic mission (embassy or consulate general) in the country where you live. If you are a legal resident of Denmark, the application may normally be submitted in Denmark. You must book an appointment before you show up at the Citizen Service. Read more about where the Immigration Service's Citizen Service has branch offices and how you book an appointment at www.newtodenmark.dk/visit-us.

On newtodenmark.dk you can find more information about who can submit an application in Denmark.

Which documents are required?

Please include the following documents when submitting this form:

- A copy of your passport (all pages including cover) or a copy of your ID card (EU citizens only).
- Proof of previous Danish citizenship, Danish heritage or that you belong to the Danish minority in South Schleswig or has an affiliation with the Danish minority in Argentina (see examples on page 2-3).

Biometric features required on residence cards Adults

If you reside in Denmark or a country where Denmark has a diplomatic mission, you must appear in person to have your biometric features (digital facial image and fingerprints) recorded for use in your residence card. Your biometric features must be recorded in connection with the application being submitted.

If you reside in a country where Denmark has a representation agreement with another country's diplomatic mission, you must appear in person and submit one facial image in connection with the application being submitted. Once you arrive in Denmark, your biometric features will be recorded.

Children under the age of 18

Children under the age of 18 who are to live with the custody holder in Denmark are not normally required to hold a residence card. A child can however request to get a residence card. If the child requests a residence card, and if the child resides in Denmark or in a country where Denmark has a diplomatic mission, the child's digital facial image and fingerprints (biometric features) must be recorded in connection with the application being submitted.

Children who are not to live with the custody holder in Denmark, but are instead to live with a foster parent or close relative, are required to hold a residence card. If the child resides in Denmark or in a country where Denmark has a diplomatic mission, the child must appear in person to have his/her biometric features recorded. The child's biometric features must be recorded in connection with the application being submitted. If the child resides in a country where Denmark has a representation agreement with another country's diplomatic mission, the child must appear in person and submit one facial image in connection with the application being submitted. Once the child arrives in Denmark, his/her biometric features will be recorded.

Read more about biometric residence cards on the last page of this form and at www.newtodenmark.dk/residencecard

Bring your passport

You must bring your original passport or ID card (EU citizens only), when you submit the application or when you have your biometric features recorded, to enable the authorities to identify you.

How we process personal data

You can read more about the processing of your personal data and your rights in the fact sheets about data protection which you will find at the back of the form.

Your application can be refused if it lacks the necessary information or documents

The Immigration Service may refuse your application if it does not include the necessary information or documents. Please remember to use the checklist at the end of this form before submitting this application.

For more information

More information about the rules governing residence in Denmark is available at newtodenmark.dk, where you can also find information about processing times. If you have questions when filling out the forms, you can also contact the Danish Immigration Service. See contact information at www.newtodenmark.dk/contact-us.

6. Information about your affiliation with the Danish minority in South Schleswig

You must only fill in this section if you are applying for a residence permit based on your affiliation with the Danish minority in South Schleswig.

In order for you to be granted family reunification, you must fulfil the declaration. If you do not mark the declaration or in another way indicate and document, that you accept the content of the declaration, it can influence your application for residence permit, and you must expect to get a refusal.

If you in another way have indicated to accept the content of the declaration, you must attach documentation for this.

I declare that I consider myself to be Danish and am therefore applying for a residence permit on the basis of my affiliation with the Danish minority in South Schleswig.

You can supplement your declaration by attach a copy of a diploma or letter from a school belonging to the Association of Danish Schools of South Schleswig (Den Danske Skoleforening for Sydslesvig), a membership card or letter from the Southslesvigian organisation (Sydslesvigsk Forening) or a membership card from the SSW (Sydslesvigsk Vælgerforening).

I do not wish to declare myself Danish.

7. Sworn declarations

A. Sworn declaration of correctness

I solemnly swear that the information in this application is correct and complete.

If the information is found to be false or incomplete, I am subject to the following penalties:

- Fine or imprisonment of up to two years (Criminal Code section 161 cf. Aliens Act section 40).

- I can be required by law to repay the expenses incurred by the Danish state as a consequence of the false or incomplete information (Aliens Act section 40).
- My residence permit can be revoked (Aliens Act section 19).

B. Declaration of consent to allow authorities to gather necessary information

I consent to letting the Immigration Service obtain information about my pure private affairs from other Danish authorities, including the police authorities, for the purpose of enabling them to process my application (Public Administration Act section 29).

Such information includes:

- Criminal conditions
- Health conditions
- Intern family conditions
- Social conditions

C. Information about data protection

You can get information about how the Immigration Service and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Denmark process your data and about your rights in the fact sheet at the back of the form.

D. Notification that information can be passed on to Danish intelligence agencies and prosecuting authorities

The information and documents that you submit with your application can be passed on to Danish intelligence agencies and the Danish public prosecuting authority (Aliens Act section 45 a and section 45 c). This process can be initiated by Danish immigration authorities, Danish intelligence agencies or the Danish public prosecutor.

The prosecuting authority will be able to use the information to evaluate whether there are grounds for prosecuting you for crimes committed in Denmark or abroad, to identify victims of or witnesses to a specific crime, or to aid foreign law enforcement agencies.

E. Notification that some information will be passed on to local Danish authorities

Danish immigration authorities are permitted to give certain information to the municipality (kommune) in which you settle if you receive a residence permit.

Such information includes:

- The grounds for issuing you a residence permit.
- Exemptions to restrictions placed on your residence permit (if any).

The municipality will be informed if:

- Your residence permit is revoked or not extended.
- Your residence permit is found to have expired.
- Your residence permit is made permanent.

F. Information that some information will be passed on to your employer

The Danish immigration authorities will inform your possible current and previous employers, who you have been working for within the last 3 months, if your application for residence permit is refused, if extension of your residence permit is denied, if the residence permit has lapsed or is being revoked (Aliens Act section 44a).

The immigration authorities can obtain information in the income registry (eIndkomst) about the salaries that have been paid to you within the last 3 months if necessary (Aliens Act section 44a).

G. Information regarding possible verification by the authorities of the information you have supplied

The Integration Service or another Danish authority may seek to verify the accuracy of the information you gave in your application. This may happen while your application is being reviewed or after you have received your residence permit. Verification may be conducted at random and is not necessarily an indication that the Immigration Service suspects you of providing false information.

Verification may involve the following:

- Checking public registers, such as the Civil Registration System.
- Comparison of information contained in the Danish immigration authorities' registers with records held by the Central Office of Civil Registration (CPR Office), the Buildings and Housing Registry (BBR) or the income registry (eIndkomst)
- Contacting other authorities, such as municipalities.
- Contacting third parties, such as employers or places of study.
- Turning up in person at your residence, place of study or workplace.

You may be asked to supply additional information as part of the verification process.

H. Information about the consequences for permanent residence, if you have worked against the establishment of your identity

You are obligated to provide correct information about your identity. If you have worked deliberately against the establishment of your identity in connection with your application for residence permit/extension of residence permit, it could mean, that you cannot be granted a permanent residence permit in the future. This applies if you e.g. present falsified identity documents, or if you give untrue information about your name, date of birth (age), country of birth or citizenship.

I. Information about possible consequences if you apply for a residence permit while in Denmark on a visa (short term)

If you are staying in Denmark on a visa (short term) and you submit an application for a residence permit in this country, you need to be aware that it may result in you becoming ineligible for a visa for five-years (Aliens Act section 4c).

However, the abovementioned consequence does not apply in the following cases:

- If you are a spouse or a child under 15 applying for family reunification (Aliens Act 9(1) para.1) or 2)).
- If you apply for a residence permit on the grounds of special conditions (Aliens Act section 9c(1) on the grounds of such family ties mentioned in 9(1) para.1) or 2)).
- If you apply for a residence permit on the grounds of studies or PhD studies (Aliens Act section 9i(1) or (2)).
- If you apply for a residence permit on the grounds of the cities of refuge program (Aliens Act section 9c(4)).
- If you apply for a residence permit on the grounds of work (Aliens Act section 9a(2) paras. 1) – 11) or subsection (3).
- If you apply for a residence permit on the grounds of work according to Denmark’s international obligations (Aliens Act section 9p(1), the first sentence).
- If you apply for a residence permit as a retired employee of an international organisation etc. or as an accompanying family member to a retired employee of an international organisation etc. (Aliens Act Section 9q(1), (2) or (3)).
- If you, after you have submitted the application, leaves the Schengen States in accordance with the validity of your visa.
- If there are decisive humanitarian reasons for allowing you to remain eligible for a visa.

These exceptions on apply if the reason for your application is genuine.

8. Signature

By signing below, I confirm that I have read, understood and accepted the terms laid out in section 7 A-B, and that I have read and understood the terms in section 7 C-H.

Have you remembered everything?

If your application for residence permit in Denmark is correctly filled out and contains the required documents, the Immigration Service can process your case with the shortest possible processing time. The expected maximum processing time for applications for family reunification can be found at www.newtodenmark.dk/us-times. If your application is not correctly filled out or is missing documents, it can be refused, or the processing time may be longer. It is therefore important that you make certain that the forms are filled out correctly and that you have included the necessary documents before submitting your application.

We recommend using the checklist below before submitting the application.

Checklist

Before submitting your application, it is important to make sure you have included the following:

- A copy of your passport (all pages including the cover) or a copy of your ID card (EU citizens only).
- Documentation that you previously held Danish citizenship, documentation of your Danish heritage, documentation of your affiliation with the Danish minority in South Schleswig or documentation of your affiliation with the Danish minority in Argentina.

It is also important to

- answer all questions, and
- sign and date the application.

Remember to bring your passport or your ID card (EU citizens only) when submitting the application.

Biometric features required on residence cards – applications from adults

If you submit your application in Denmark or in a country where Denmark has a diplomatic mission, you must appear in person to have your digital facial image and fingerprints (biometric features) recorded.

If you submit your application at the diplomatic mission of a country with which Denmark has a representation agreement, you must appear in person to submit one facial image. Upon arrival in Denmark, your biometric features will be recorded.

If you send your application by post or if it is submitted by a third-party such as a lawyer, you must appear in person to have your biometric features recorded within a set deadline of the application being submitted. If you reside in a country where Denmark has a representation agreement with another country's diplomatic mission, you must appear in person to submit one facial image within a set deadline of submitting your application. You can see the set deadline for recording of biometric features at www.newtodenmark.dk/residencecard.

When you appear to have your biometric features recorded or to submit your facial images, please remember to bring a photocopy of the first three pages of your completed application form. This will allow the immigration authorities to match your biometric features with the application. Please note if you refuse to get your facial image or fingerprints recorded in connection with submitting the application, your application will be rejected.

Please bring your passport or other form of travel documentation when having your biometric features recorded or when submitting your facial images. In addition to your biometric features, your signature will also be recorded. Facial images and fingerprints are stored on a microchip embedded in the residence card. If you are not physically capable of providing fingerprints, you are exempt from the requirement to be fingerprinted.

If you are in Denmark biometric features can be recorded at the Danish Immigration Service's Citizen Service. You must book an appointment before you show up at the Citizen Service. Read more about where the Immigration Service's Citizen Service has branch offices and how you book an appointment at www.newtodenmark.dk/visit-us.

If you are to submit the application abroad please note that you must check the website of the Danish Ministry of Foreign Affairs: 'Where to apply' at www.um.dk/en/travel-and-residence/where-to-apply for information as to where you may submit your biometric features. Please note that for many locations you must present yourself in person at a Visa Application Centre (VFS) and that you must book an appointment before you show up.

Note that Denmark does not have diplomatic missions in all countries of the world and that representation agreements have been signed with other countries. In such cases, you must seek relevant information from the representing mission, cf. above link.

Read more about residence cards and biometric features at www.newtodenmark.dk/residencecard.

Biometric features required on residence cards – applications from minor children

Children under the age of 18 who are to live with the custody holder in Denmark are not normally required to hold a residence card. A child can however request to be issued a residence card.

If the child requests a residence card, and if the child resides in Denmark or in a country where Denmark has a diplomatic mission, the child's digital facial image and fingerprints (biometric features) must be recorded in connection with the application being submitted.

Children who are not to live with the custody holder in Denmark, but are instead to live with a foster parent or close relative, are required to hold a residence card. If the application is submitted in Denmark or a country with a Danish diplomatic mission, the child must appear in person to have his/her biometric features recorded. If the child resides in a country where Denmark has a representation agreement with another country's diplomatic mission, the child must appear in person to submit one facial image. Once the child arrives in Denmark, his/her biometric features must be recorded. If the child's application is sent by post or submitted by a third-party such as a lawyer, the child must appear in person to have his/her biometric features recorded within a set deadline of the application being submitted. You can see the set deadline for recording of biometric features at www.newtodenmark.dk/residencecard.

If the child resides in a country where Denmark has a representation agreement with another country's diplomatic mission, the child must appear in person to submit one facial image within a set deadline of the application being submitted. You can see the set deadline for recording of biometric features at www.newtodenmark.dk/residencecard. If the child's application has been sent by post or submitted by a third-party such as a lawyer, please remember to bring a photocopy of the first three pages of the child's completed application form when having the child's biometric features recorded. This will allow the immigration authorities to match the child's biometric features with the application. Please note if the child refuses to get his/her facial image or fingerprints recorded in connection with submitting the application, the application will be rejected.

When having the child's biometric features recorded, please bring the child's passport or travel documentation. The child's signature will also be recorded. Facial images and fingerprints are stored on a microchip embedded in the residence card. If the child is under 6, only a facial image is required. If the child is not physically capable of providing fingerprints, the child is exempt from the requirement to be fingerprinted.

If the child is in Denmark biometric features can be recorded at the Danish Immigration Service's Citizen Service. You must book an appointment before you show up at the Citizen Service. Read more about where the Immigration Service's Citizen Service has branch offices and how you book an appointment at www.newtodenmark.dk/visit-us.

For children living abroad please note that you must check the website of the Danish Ministry of Foreign Affairs: 'Where to apply' at www.um.dk/en/travel-and-residence/where-to-apply for information as to where you may submit your biometric features. Please note that for many locations you must present yourself in person at a Visa Application Centre (VFS) and that you must book an appointment before you show up.

Note that Denmark does not have diplomatic missions in all countries of the world and that representation agreements have been signed with other countries. In such cases, you must seek relevant information from the representing mission, cf. above link.

If the child lives with the custody holder in Denmark and does not request a residence card, please submit one passport photo. The child's biometric features will not need to be recorded. The child can apply for a residence card at a later date, should the need arise.

Information about data protection in the Danish Immigration Service

Data controller

The Immigration Service is responsible for processing the personal data you provide in this application form and for the data about you we receive in connection with processing the case. Our contact information is: Danish Immigration Service, Farimagvej 51A, 4700 Næstved, CVR-nr.: 77940413, telephone: +45 35 36 66 00, www.newtodenmark.dk

Data protection officer

If you have questions about how we process your personal data, you can contact our data protection officer who has the following contact information: Danish Immigration Service, Farimagvej 51A, 4700 Næstved, Att: Databeskyttelsesrådgiver/Data protection officer

You can also write to our data protection officer via Digital Post (e-Boks) or through our contact form at www.newtodenmark.dk/contact-us.

Purpose and legal basis

Your data are collected in order to process your application for residence and the possible following residence in Denmark and to control the requirements for this.

The legal basis for processing your personal data is:

- provisions of the Aliens Act (udlændingeloven), in particular: section 1 (relating to entry into Denmark and residence)
- the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) 6.1(c) (relating to the processing of data in order to comply with a legal obligation to which the controller is subject) and 6.1 (e) (relating to the exercise of official authority vested in the Immigration Service by the Aliens Act)
- GDPR 9.2 (f) (relating to the necessity of processing in order to establish, exercise or defend legal claims)
- The Data Protection Act section 8 (relating to the administration only being allowed to process information about criminal offences if it is necessary for the official authorities' tasks).

You are obligated to provide the information necessary for deciding whether you are eligible for a Danish residence permit (Aliens Act section 40). Failure to provide the information can result in a fine or up to one year imprisonment, as well as placing your residence permit in jeopardy (Aliens Act section 60).

The information you supply or have supplied in connection with your application for a residence permit will be registered in the Danish immigration authorities' registers. The same holds true for any information you give in conjunction with an application to extend your residence. If you receive a residence permit, it will be registered in the Civil Registration System. The Civil Registration System is a computerised register maintained by the Ministry for Economic Affairs and the Interior.

Types of personal data

We process the following types of data about you:

- General personal data, such as: information about your identity; citizenship and nationality; travel routes; information about your family; memberships of associations; financial information; information about your refugee status; and whether you have committed any legally punishable offences
- Sensitive personal data, such as: political opinions or religious beliefs; health information and biometric data collected for the purpose of establishing your identity.

Recipients and categories of recipients

The Immigration Service can, in certain situations, share your data with other authorities. We regularly share data with: the police, municipal authorities, the Danish Security and Intelligence Service and the Danish Defence Intelligence Service (in accordance with section 45 a of the Aliens Act), the public prosecutor (in accordance with section 45 c of the Aliens Act), the Immigration Appeals Board, the Refugee Appeals Board, the Ministry of Immigration and Integration, the Danish Return Agency, the Danish Agency for International Recruitment and Integration, the Danish Parliament, and the Foreign Ministry, in particular the embassies and consulates.

In addition, regarding the exchange of data, we may share your data with other Schengen countries and Schengen associated countries.

Data are shared when it is necessary for the Immigration Service to exercise our official authority, including when we are legally obliged to share data.

In certain situations, the Immigration Service may provide data to a third-party data processor. In addition, other authorities and private organisations can have access to this information (Aliens Act section 44a). In isolated cases, the Immigration Service will share data with other public authorities, private-sector organisations and foreign organisations and authorities.

Origin of information

The Immigration Service processes the personal data you have provided in this application form and data you may provide at a later point in the case process.

In addition, we will process data obtained from:

- any of your possible previous cases with the Immigration Service,
- searches in databases, such as: the Civil Registration System, the income register (eIndkomst), the Central Register of Buildings and Dwellings (BBR), the Central Crime Register (KR), the Central Passport Register and the Schengen Information System (SIS),
- other authorities, such as: the police, municipal authorities, the Danish Agency for International Recruitment and Integration, the Immigration Appeals Board, the Refugee Appeals Board, the Danish Security and Intelligence Service, The Ministry of Immigration and Integration, the Danish Return Agency, and the Foreign Ministry, in particular the embassies and consulates,
- third-parties, such as: employers and educational institutions, and
- the person who might be sponsoring your application, as well as any previous cases the person may have had at the Immigration Service.

Storage of data

The Immigration Service will store your data for as long as it is necessary for us to establish or defend a legal claim to residence.

Data submitted as part of an immigration-related matter can be stored for use by the Immigration Service at a later date. The data stored by the Immigration Service can be used in applications to extend a residence permit, when revoking a residence permit, when lapsing a residence permit, applications for permanent residency, applications for naturalisation, when revoking citizenship and in your children's cases, or in the event they may be involved in an application for family reunification.

If data can be deleted at an earlier point, deletion will be considered. Similarly, access to data can be restricted.

Finally, it should be mentioned that data will also have to be transferred to the National Archives within 30 years, in accordance with section 13 of the Archive Act (arkivloven).

If you have your finger prints and facial photo taken for use with your residence card and for identification and identity control, your fingerprints and photo will be stored in the immigration authorities' database. If you are granted a residence permit, your fingerprints and photo are stored for 10 years. If you are not granted a residence permit, your fingerprints and photo are stored for 20 years. If you are granted Danish citizenship, your fingerprints and photo will be deleted.

If the immigration authorities decide that you do not have the right to stay in Denmark, the biometric data will be transferred to the Schengen Information System (SIS), which is a central EU system where the Schengen countries share and exchange information. This system has been set up for, among other things, cooperation and exchange of information between immigration authorities and other Schengen countries. The information is stored in the SIS until you are registered as having departed from Denmark or another Schengen country.

You can read more about Schengen countries and Schengen associated countries at www.newtodenmark.dk/schengen

Consent

The Immigration Service does not request consents in order to process personal data, as is otherwise required by the GDPR, since processing authority is granted by 6.1 (e) and 9.2 (f) of the GDPR (see section 3).

You may be asked for legal consent. Such a consent is not the basis for the specific procession of personal data but is instead a warranty provision in accordance with e.g. the Public Administration Act (forvaltningsloven) or the Aliens Act.
