Application for a permanent residence permit on the grounds of family reunification for children under the age of 18

Uses

This form should be used to apply for a permanent residence permit in Greenland by a family reunified child. Please complete one form per child.

The term 'family reunified child' should be understood to mean a child who has been granted a Greenlandic residence permit in order to live with:

- one or both parents
- a foster parent or
- an adult sibling, grandparent or other close relation.

If possible, the adult with whom the child has been family reunified in Greenland (parent, foster parent, near relation), should complete the form together with the child.

In most cases, the child qualify for permanent residence permit in Greenland when:

- the child's parents in Greenland have permanent residence permits and
- the child have held the same type of Faroese residence permit for more than three years

If the child is over 15 years old, the child may not have been convicted of certain crimes in order to qualify for permanent Faroese residence permit.

In this form, the term 'applicant' should be understood to mean the child who apply for a permanent residence permit. The term 'parent' is used as a general term to refer to the adult with whom the child has been family reunified in Greenland.

Who should sign the form?

Applicants (children) over 15 years old must sign the form. The form must also be signed by the parent.

The applicant should sign Section 6 and the parent should sign Section 4.

If the applicant (the child) is under 15 years old, only the parent needs to sign the form in Section 4.

Instructions

- Fill out and sign this form
- Enclose documents
- Submit the form and any required documentation at a local police station or send it to:
The Danish Immigration Service
Farimagvej 51A
4700 Næstved.

What documents should you include with the application?

- One passport photo affixed to the personal data card in Appendix 1
- Copy of the applicant's (the child's) passport.

Contact to Greenlandic authorities

If the child is over 15 years old, the Danish Immigration Service will consult the Greenlandic police about any information from the Central Crime Register.

For more information

More information about the rules governing permanent residence permit is available at newtodenmark.dk, where you can also find information about processing times. If you have questions when filling out the forms, you can also contact the Danish Immigration Service. See contact information at www.newtodenmark.dk/contact-us.

3. Declarations from the parent

A. Sworn declaration of correctness

I solemnly declare that the information in this application is correct and complete in accordance with Section 161 of the Danish Criminal Code, cf. Section 40 of Ordinance No 150 of 23 February 2001 (Application of the Aliens Act in Greenland).

If the information is later found to be false, I am subject to the following penalties:

- fine or imprisonment for up to two years
- I can be required to repay the expenses incurred by the Danish state as a consequence of the false information
- the applicant's residence permit can be revoked in accordance with section 19 of Ordinance No 150 of 23 February 2001

B. Declaration of consent – release of information required for processing my application

I consent to allowing the Danish immigration authorities to obtain and release information about my private affairs if it is necessary in order to process this application, cf. Public Administration Act Sections 28 and 29, cf. Ordinance No 1188 of 27 December 1994 (Application of the Public Administration Act in Greenland), and altered on 2 March 1999 by Ordinance No 119. The information can be gathered from or released to other Danish and foreign public authorities, including the police.

Such information includes:

- previous criminal proceedings against me
- information about my family
- information about the documents submitted with my application, including verification that they are genuine

I also consent to giving authorities contacted by the Danish Immigration Service while processing my application permission to gather information about my private affairs in order to respond to the enquiry.

C. Notification that information can be released to Danish intelligence agencies and prosecuting authorities

The information and documentation you submit with your application can, in certain cases and based on an individual review, be released to Danish intelligence agencies and the public prosecuting authority, cf. Public Administration Act, Section 28, Paragraph 2 (4), cf. Ordinance No 1188 of 22 December 1994.

The prosecuting authority will use the information to evaluate whether there are grounds for prosecuting you for crimes committed in Denmark/Greenland or abroad.

D. Notification that some information will be released to Greenlandic authorities

Danish immigration authorities are permitted to release certain information to the Greenlandic home rule authorities or to the Greenlandic Police, cf. Public Administration Act, Section 28, Paragraph 3, cf. Ordinance No 1188 of 27 December 1994.

Such information includes:

- the grounds for issuing you a residence permit
- any waivers granted

The police will be informed if:

- your residence permit is revoked or not extended
- your residence permit is found to have lapsed or
- your residence permit is made permanent

E. Notification that Danish authorities will register information about you and your private affairs

The information you submit when applying for a residence permit will be entered in the Danish Immigration Service's registers. The same holds true for information submitted when applying to extend your Greenlandic residence permit.

The information in the Danish Immigration Service's registers will be used to answer questions about your residence in Greenland. The police will have access to the information contained in the Danish Immigration Service's registers for record keeping and verification purposes. The Ministry of Immigration and Integration will be permitted to access the Danish Immigration Service's registers in the event of a complaint.

Other authorities or organisations will receive information about you from the Danish Immigration Service's registers if the information is necessary to answer questions about your residence in Greenland.

You are obliged to provide the information necessary for deciding whether you are eligible for a Faroese residence permit, cf. Section 40 of Ordinance No 182 of 22 March 2001. Failure to provide the information can result in a fine or up to four months mitigated imprisonment, as well as jeopardising your residence permit. You are entitled to right of access to the information about you in the Danish Immigration Service's registers, cf. Danish law No 294 of 8 June 1978 (Public Registers). Enquiries about accessing information contained in the register can be addressed to:

The Danish Immigration Service
Farimagvej 51A
4700 Næstved
Denmark

F. Verification of the information you submitted
