This also applies to information you may give in conjunction with an application to extend the applicant's stay. The registration is mandatory.

Any personal data concerning you which appear on the invitation form will be supplied to the relevant authorities of the Schengen Member States and processed by these authorities, for the purpose of a decision on the visa application. Such data will be entered into, and stored in C-VIS for a maximum period of 5 years, and in IVR-VIS for a maximum period of 10 years. During this period of time, it will be accessible to the visa authorities and the authorities competent for carrying out checks on visas at external borders and within the Member States. Furthermore, immigration and asylum authorities in the Member States will have access to the data for the purpose of verifying whether the conditions for the legal entry into, stay and residence on the territory of the Member States are fulfilled, of identifying persons who do not or who no longer fulfil the conditions, of examining an asylum application and on determining responsibility for such examination.

C. Information regarding possible verification by the authorities of the information you have supplied
The Danish Immigration Service may seek to verify the accuracy of the information you have given in this form. This may happen while the application is being reviewed or after the applicant has been granted a visa. Verification may be conducted at random and is not necessarily an indication that the Danish Immigration Service suspects you of providing false information.

Verification may involve the following:

- Checking public registers, such as the Central Person Register
- Contacting other authorities, such as municipalities

You may be asked to supply additional information as part of the verification process.

D. Information about the consequences connected to the applicants illegal stay in Denmark or another Schengen country
If the applicant is issued a visa, the applicant shall leave the Schengen region within the validity of the visa. The visa gives the holder the right to reside in the Schengen region for a predetermined number of days within a further defined period of validity. The period of validity is often longer than the number of days the visa is issued for.

The applicant may neither reside in the Schengen region for more than the permitted number of days, nor arrive or depart outside of the validity period.

If the applicant stays in Denmark or the Schengen region beyond the validity of the visa it may have serious consequences and the applicant may be given a penalty period. During this period the applicant will normally be unable to obtain a Schengen visa to enter Denmark. If the applicant exceeds the visa period by up to 30 days the applicant may be banned for 3 years, and if the applicant exceeds the visa period by more than 30 days a 5 year ban may be imposed.

E. Consequences if the applicant is expelled from Denmark or applies for asylum in Denmark or another Schengen country
If the applicant upon entering Denmark on a visa is expelled either by administrative decision or by court order, or if the applicant applies for asylum in Denmark or another Schengen country and does not leave voluntarily after the final rejection, the applicant will not be eligible for obtaining a new visa for a period of 5 years.

F. Information about possible consequences if the applicant applies for a residence permit while in Denmark on a visa (short term)
If the visa applicant submits an application for certain kinds of residence permit during the applicants visa stay in Denmark and subsequently does not leave the Schengen countries in accordance with the validity of the visa issued, you need to be aware, that the applicant can become ineligible for a visa for 5 years. You can read more about what types of residence permit an applicant can apply for while the applicant is staying in Denmark on a visa, without the applicant being prevented from obtaining a visa, in section 4c of the Aliens Act and on www.newtodenmark.dk/misuse
